

H. J. Maurer returned yesterday from Jamestown and other towns in that vicinity, where he has been for the past two weeks. While at Jamestown his mother, Mrs. Jesse Maurer sustained the fracture of one of her legs near the hip, and he was compelled to remain there to care for her for a few days.