le Attorney J. F. Faytle received his ri appointment as postmaster at Mc- or Henry last Friday, to succeed G. B. fr Mansfield, resigned, since which at time he has been rounding things in in shape at his new headquarters. John pe is taking hold of his new duties in tie earnest and assures the general pub- th lic right-up-to-the-minute service as be long as he remains postmaster. Miss he Gladys Lowden will continue in the ar capacity of assistant.-McHenry by