s Robbery Discovered In a Very Peculiar Manner-No Cash Gone. Tolna Tribune: Tuesday while 8 Simon Mybre was cutting hay near the reservoir, the mower 2 was stopped by a coat hanger catching in the sickle. The ŧ, hanger looked so new that Simon became suspicious and on looking around in the grass be found more of the same kind. When he brought them in they were quickly identified as having come from the Hanson-Dahlberg store. On examination the stock was h t 8 y 0 -found to be short five suits. This e was the first intimation that the f 1 store had been robbed. The i locks have been all right every morning and the thieves were careful to arrange things so that the absence of the goods would t not be noticed. Further search revealed that at least one box of cigars and some 7 shoes are gone but the extent of the loss it is impossible to tell to e a certainty. So tar as could be t learned they did not tamper with the cash register or safe. This is the second time the same store has been robbed, the . other time being three years ago. e е Then the thieves stole tools from the section house, forced the rear door, blew the safe and secured st a about fifteen dollars. As in that case, so this time, the robbers made their getaway clean and 0 there seems no chance of their

being caught.
