Ben E. Nelson departed Tuesday for his new home in Canada. He has a claim near Biggar, Sask. and he believes that country has a great future in store. Binford people are sorry to lose Ben. He was one of the pioneers of the town, and done as much as anyone towards building it up. He was always ready to assist in any project for the advancement of the town financially and otherwise. The best of wishes of the whole community go with him to his new home.
