

Ben E. Nelson returned last Thursday from Dundurn, Sask., where he went in search of land. He filed on some fine land near that place. While there he visited the Vogens and reports them as getting along fine. Roy is as fat and jovial as ever. He has a claim a considerable distance from Dundurn, and will soon move onto it.