

ness which interesting begins.

Martin Nelson, who has been in Cooperstown for the past six months was in Binford the fore part of the week. He left yesterday for Shafer. An uncle of his who had a claim near that town died recently and while Mr. Nelson is not the only heir of the deceased, he is the only one who can legally hold the claim as the others reside in Norway.