

crop.

Photographer Newgard left Monday for Minneapolis, where he is attending the Eastman school of professional photography. Mr. Newgard is having an excellent business in his line, and is always on the alert for the latest creations in photos to give to his trade. He will return the last of the week. Read his ad in this issue.