

Two more cases of infantile paralysis have developed in this community. Alvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shaw is taken with the disease, but in a very light form. The other case is out at Ramsfield, northwest of town. Both legs and one arm is affected on this child. Harry Norstrum, who was taken with the disease two months ago, is improving, and is able to walk lightly.

Ruben, the eight months old