

A case of infantile paralysis has developed in Binford. Harry, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Norstrum is laid up with the disease. He has a light attack of it, only one knee being affected.