

things rather uncomfortable.

Knute Norswing arrived Tuesday from Davenport, to look after matters on his farm. Knute likes married life and from the looks of him we are inclined to agree with him. He has about decided to return to Binford and next spring expects to move onto his farm north of town. Knute and wife will find a warm welcome awaiting them.

In the early development of Dake