

Chas. Patterson loaded his household goods Monday and shipped them to McHenry, where the Pattersons will reside in the future. The Times is sorry to have them move from here. They were good neighbors and friends, and we wish them all the prosperity and happiness the world can bestow upon them in their new home.