

Chas. Patterson has suffered considerable this week from kidney trouble. This is the second time that he has been seized with it, and he is of the opinion that he will have to undergo an operation in order to be completely restored to health.