

in demand elsewhere, and he decided to accept the position as manager of their office at Detroit, Minn. His new position is considerable of a promotion, and brings a substantial increase in salary. During Mr. Paulson's residence here he has been instrumental in getting a great many new settlers to locate in this vicinity and has always been a consistent and enthusiastic booster for Marion and the Famous Marion Country. Mr. Paulson is a director of the Johnston State Bank and a member of the firm of K. A. Bakke & Co. He is a good citizen, enterprising and progressive, and one whom Marion can ill afford to lose. Mrs. Paulson will also be greatly missed, as she has always been active in church and social circles, and at the time of leaving was president of the Congregational ladies aid society. While their departure is a matter of sincere regret to all who know them, the best wishes for pleasant and congenial surroundings and a happy and prosperous home go with them.
