

While enjoying the day at Willow lake, Sunday, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Petersen of Lancaster, Minnesota, had the misfortune to fall and cut a bad gash on the side of her nose on a piece of broken glass. She was taken into town hurriedly to Dr. Truscott who soon had the wound closed, two stitches being necessary. The nose is healing nicely at this time.

O. I. Anderson had the misfortune