

The editor of this paper has been thinking seriously all spring of buying an auto and after looking over the different makes we have got the thing sifted down to two reliable makes—A Ford and A Can't Afford. We have finally decided upon the latter as the one we will have to take.