

THANKS, BRETHREN.

Carl E. Peterson of the Binford Times has purchased the entire "shebang" so he says, and will make the Times better than ever. Here's wishing you success, Bro. Peterson.—Warwick Weekly Sentinel.

Carl E. Peterson, who has leased The Binford Times for the past two years, purchased the plant and building Monday of last week. We wish Mr. Peterson all kinds of success as owner of the Times, and congratulate the business men of Binford in having so able a man at the helm.—Grace City Journal.

C. E. Peterson, who has been running the Binford (N. D.) Times, has purchased the plant and is now "chief man on the job." Carl is a product of this part of the universe and is a good addition to the editorial fraternity of the Flickertail state. We hope for your continued prosperity and happiness, Bro. Peterson.—Evansville, Minn. Enterprise.

C. E. Peterson, who for the past couple of years has published the Binford Times under a lease, last week became the sole owner of the paper. Brother Peterson has given the people of Binford and vicinity a good paper and now that the whole shebang is his'n it is safe to say the high standard of the Times will be maintained. Congratulations, Pete.—McKenzie County Chronicle.

C. E. Peterson, formerly connected with the Echo at Brandon but of late years editing the Binford Times, North Dakota, has bought that paper and is now a full fledged publisher and editor. He is putting up a good, clean, readable paper. His numerous friends in Brandon, Evansville and other points in Douglas county will be greatly pleased to learn of his progress.—Alexandria, Minn. Echo.

The Courier desires to congratulate Editor Peterson, of Binford, who last week purchased the printing office and outfit from the former owner and is now the sole owner and proprietor of that newsy and prosperous looking paper. Mr. Peterson deserves the success he has attained and the people of Binford are lucky in having so good a man as a permanent fixture in the town.—Coopers-town Courier.

C. E. Peterson ("Irish") has purchased the Binford Times, with which he has been connected for several years. Mr. Peterson is a good printer and a breezy writer, besides being one of the best fellows on earth. He has had better success with the Times than any of his predecessors, making it one of the best papers in this section of the state, and the Sentinel extends congratulations and best wishes for his continued success.—Griggs County Sentinel.
