

Julius Peterson returned here last Friday from points in Minnesota, where he spent a month's vacation. He will assist in the Times office until the first of September and then will enter the employ of the N. P. here during the busy season.