

C. E. Peterson and daughter, Phyllis, motored to Northwood last Friday, to spend a few days with Mrs. Peterson, who underwent an operation in the hospital at that place. The editor returned Sunday evening, but Phyllis will remain until her mother returns sometime next week. Mrs. Peterson expects to leave the hospital tomorrow.

The Times is rather "delim" and