

Mrs. C. E. Peterson left Monday for Northwood, where she received surgical treatment for hemorrhoids at the hospital there. The operation was a difficult one, and for a time yesterday she was very sick. Word from there this morning brings the glad news that she had a good rest last night and that she is feeling much better today.