
A PRIZE WINNER.

Editor's Wife Won a Piano in Newspaper Subscription Contest.

Mrs. C. E. Peterson won a piano in the subscription contest conducted by the Woman's Home Weekly of Minneapolis. She occupied fourth place in the final count with 2,452,000 votes. The first prize, a Ford automobile, was awarded to Mary Peterson, of Kenmare, with 3,868,000 votes. Another North Dakota lady, Mrs. O. J. Olson of Wilton, won a piano for second prize, with 2,616,000 votes. Third prize, another piano, was won by a lady in Texas. Thus, it will noted that three of the four grand prizes were won by women of this state—and Petersons and Olson, at that.

While we are sorry the Mrs. didn't capture the coveted prize, we are thankful for the substantial prize she did win, and, by heck, if we can sell it, and then collect subscription money this fall, we'll have a car anyhow. Now don't all speak at once.
