

...vices, that of playing slide.

Russel Purinton, of Saskatoon, Sask., was here last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Purinton is connected with the collection department of the International Harvester company and will be transferred back to the United States. He is undecided as to where he will make his residence.

Be a heester for your home town