

A telephone message this morning from Ben Rasen at Pekin, states that he just returned from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he has been most of the winter. He is greatly improved in health and feels that the treatment at the Springs has done him a world of good.