

Ben Raaen was down from his farm near Pekin yesterday. Ben is an old reader of The Times and called to have his subscription renewed. He is making a deal this week to dispose of his farm, and if it goes through he expects to sell his personal property and move to Canada next spring.