

All day the 25th.

Erick Erickson last Saturday purchased the Otto Retzlaff barn in Cooperstown, trading his residence property and machinery business at Jessie in the deal. The change was made the first of the week, Mr. Erickson being now in possession here and Mr. Retzlaff now having charge of the machinery business at Jessie. Both changes are meeting with the approval of the respective friends of the two parties—and the Sentinel wishes them both good luck and good fortune in their new enterprises.—Sentinel.
