

He left here in 1888.

W. (Bill) D. Ringland, one of the most popular salesman making this territory, has decided to quit the road, and will hereafter devote his time to managing the mercantile business of his father, who died recently, at Kasson, Minnesota. Bill has been with the Wyman, Partridge Co. of Minneapolis, for the past 12 years, and has made his headquarters at Fargo. Buchheit-Bakken Co. have been his customers here, and, they and many others, will miss his frequent calls to Binford.
