

Wm. Robertson returned last Friday from Canada, where he had been for the past two months looking over the country with a view of taking a homestead. He says the country which he visited is about as thickly settled as it is here. He passed thru Regina a few days after the cyclone, and says it was awful the way some of the buildings were wrecked. Had the cyclone happened on any other day but Sunday, the loss of life would have been much greater.

A. J. Melgard has resigned his po-