

y
week.

Martin Rood had an experience Monday that he don't care to have repeated very soon. He was going over the grade west of the Hogie farm, in his auto, when one of the front springs broke, turning the wheels so the car went over the grade. Mr. Rood jump from the car as soon as he saw he could not control it. It turned completely over, and, luckily, only one lamp and one wheel were broken.