

Alfred Rorvig, who was injured some weeks ago by being thrown off a load of lumber and run over, returned home Tuesday from Fargo, where he was confined in a hospital. Alfred has recovered nicely and feels none the worse for the accident.