

Rosendal

J. D. Johnson made a business trip to Binford the other day.

B. C. Phipps of McHenry came to Mose the other day in his new automobile.

Mr. Omedal started seeding last week on the Aarestad farm near Mose.

Albert Bjornson bought a new buggy from Mr. Aarestad Monday.

J. D. Barclay started seeding last Tuesday.

Rev. Haugland of Cooperstown, Sundayed with the Aarestad family at Mose.

Theodore Thompson came up from Cooperstown the other day in his automobile looking after his farm interests two miles south of town.

Hans Aarestad started plowing with a gasoline engine last week on Mr. Omdal's farm near the Overby farm. Willie Johnson and Ludvig Lear are running the rig.

A big flock of geese alighted on the J. D. Barclay farm last week. A few of the Mose hunters were fortunate enough to get a few of them.

The meeting of the ladies aid society was held last week at the home of Mrs. M. C. Lear.

The farmers are busy hauling potatoes in to Mose these days. They are receiving 75 cents per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knapp and E. Amadon autoed to McHenry last Wednesday evening and stopped for a few minutes in Mose shaking hands with friends.

Benj. Tufte came up from Cooperstown last Tuesday to look after his farm interests. He returned next day.

The last snowstorm is over and the spring work is taken up with full force.