

Rosendal

A big dance was given at the Erick Johnson home last week.

Miss Olga Rorvig, who is teaching school at Mose this winter, spent Sunday with Mrs. Gertrude Barclay.

A. J. Carlson's auction sale last Thursday, was a good one, and everything sold at a high price. F. G. Lewis is a dandy auctioneer.

Nels Halvorson, of Binford, bought the best team of horses at A. J. Carlson's sale last Thursday. The price was $470.00.

Our thrifty store clerk at Mose, returned the other day from Montana where she had been in search of land.

A big dance was given by Peder Tufte Monday night. A big crowd was present and everyone reported a good time.

Miss Bertha Frigard of Coopers-town is teaching the Barclay school this winter. The work is progressing rapidly. About 16 scholars are in attendance.

The Socialist local in Mose is making rapid strides these days. It is growing like Rockefeller's money.

Olaf Johnson came up from Hannaford the other day, to shake hands with old friends.

Ole Tufte, who has been logging in the woods this winter, came home Monday, looking stout and healthy. Grain is still being hauled to Mose.

Pastor Dybvik has handed in his resignation from the Mose congregation, and expects to move to Dazey.
