

serious damage.

The Schoondyke family got a scare Tuesday, when their gasoline stove failed to generate properly, thereby causing the gasoline to overflow and ignite, the flames shooting up the wall. A. M. Hanson was summoned and rather than take any chances on the gasoline burning out, he threw the stove out through the window. No damage was done, except the slight scorching of a rug.

Optical Co. Dr. Primi has