

Theo. Smogard, who left last month for Fargo, to have an operation for appendicitis, is very low. He was apparently over the effects of the operation when inflammation of the veins in the leg set in and his condition at the present time is very critical.