SROUFE HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Landlord Who Shot John Mc-

Laughlin at McHenry Was Bound Over.

Frank Sroufe, who shot and ently killed John McLoughlin shot and ini: U. C. T. hotel at McHenry, on bruary 24, was held to the district ourt without bail.

He was given a eliminary hearing before seliminary hearing before last gistrate Pryor in Carrington last iday. The complaint charges first Friday. degree murder.

"Self defense will be the basis of the plea of Frank Sroufe," said At-torney W. O. Louden of McHenry, who will defend Sroufe.

"Sroufe told a straight story to the coroner's jury," said Mr. Lowden. "McLoughlin's wife worked in the hotel and the two have been the hotel and the two have been separated for some time. McLough-lin had made threats to get Sroi fe

 .

1 1

1

t

8

C 1

1

ŧ

t t í

t

8

t

and the latter was afraid of him.
Täings reached such a stage that Sroufe told Mrs. McLoughlin he could not employ her longer and she left Saturday for Jamestown taking hin.. that her young daughter with her.

"McLoughlin became intoxicated and came into the hotel with his small son for supper. He was wait-and came into the most small son for supper. He was wanted on and began cursing in the dining room and finding fault with his eating a mouthful. He food, not eating a mouthful. He went to the office and paid for his meal and asked for a cigar. When Sroufe asked him what brand he smoked he said, with an oath, it didn't make any difference. "Sroufe was reading a newspaper when McLoughlin asked him if he was running a first class hotel. was running a first class hotel.

Sroufe said he was when McLaughlin passed the lie punctuated with oaths.
He was ordered out of the hotel and would not go: Sroufe phoned the marshal and told McLoughlin to nlin to said he leave the place. The latter said would not move and could whip The latter any man in McHenry

"Sroufe picked up the revolver and McLoughlin started for the door. He was pushed outside but crowd-el back in when Sroufe ran behind the desk and secured a piece of garden hose, changing the gun to his left hand. He struck McLaughlin with the hose and I am almost cer-tain he did not intend to shoot because the gun was in his left hand. Sroufe was in a corner and Mc-

b

8

1 n

e s

cause the guina corner and McLoughlin was pressing him close as evidenced by the powder burns on his face. No one in McHenry believes Sroufe intended to shoot and believes he was justified in shooting. "Mrs. McLoughlin came back to McHenry when she heard of the af-fair, and it is likely she will care for fair, and it is likely she will care to the little boy who was with McLough-lin at the time of the shooting. The boy and the dining room girl were inquest.

"McLoughlin and his wife came Couth Dakota. He was a fine fellow when sober but when intoxicated he became ugly. He worked for the Halvorson Elevator company and has said there were two men in the town he wanted to 'get'. The the town he wanted to foreman told him to be call and get his time. peaceful or

"Sroufe was afraid of him and tried to avoid all trouble."