

Joe Storkson has quit his job on the dray line and has purchased a team of horses, and will devote his time this summer doing farming work.