

had to suffer.

Another test has been made of the water at Sutton, this time by Dr. Ruediger, of the North Dakota university. This analysis reverses the former one, and Sutton water is entirely satisfactory for drinking purposes. The Times is pleased to make a correction of the erroneous report which it helped to circulate—but who wants to drink water anyway.

Larson, Binglee & Co. have pur