

There is some talk, so we hear, of moving Mable Lutheran church to Sutton some time in the future. We are certainly ready to welcome any project of this kind and trust it may assume some tangible form before many months. --Sutton Reporter