

Sutton News.

George Hartman and wife of Cooperstown were Sutton visitors Wednesday.

Christ Reite and wife of Hannaford spent Sunday with C. L. Anderson and family.

Attorney L. N. Miller of McHenry came here Wednesday to go to Fargo by way of the Great Northern.

Alonzo Rhodes and wife of Cooperstown were here Wednesday at the home of Orion Rhodes and wife.

W. P. Houghton and C. W. Houghton and their wives were here from Cooperstown Sunday making a visit.

J. L. Nichols and family and J. F. Foster and wife of McHenry spent Sunday with Orion Rhodes and wife.

Mrs. T. S. Davidson of Sutton and Mrs. Scott Hall of Cooperstown went to Fargo on a shopping trip Tuesday.

The two children of John Urban and wife are sick with measles.

J. A. Moffatt and family and Chris Rood went to Cooperstown Saturday evening and returned Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Retzlaff and Miss Elvira Retzlaff of Jessie spent Monday with A. H. Retzlaff and wife.

The two year old daughter of Frank Kingsley has been very sick and has been under the care of a nurse from Valley City.

C. L. Anderson has been improving his place considerably this spring. He has painted his house and done some work inside, besides building a buggy shed.

The four weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. Amiel Fadniss died on Sunday morning. The burial was at Glenfield cemetery Sunday evening. The child's name was Raymond Helge Fadniss.

Dr. E. H. Corry of Reynolds, was here Friday in quest of a location. The prospects seemed encouraging and he has decided to locate here about May 15. Dr. Corry is an experienced practitioner and he has had considerable hospital experience. We welcome the Doctor to our town.

The Howden school closed last Friday, Oscar Hoffman having been the teacher. The pupils who finished the common school branches are Irene Wickham, Mamie Posey, James Bailey and George E. Howden.—Sutton Reporter.