

SUTTON

J. H. Berg, H. P. Hammer and John Oie of Cooperstown stopped here Friday on their way home from a business trip to Glenfield.

Robert Starr's car was put out of business some time ago and had to be taken to Cooperstown for repairs last week. John Ebentier pulled it into town with his car.

C. L. Anderson delivered a load of hardware, the first of the week, for the new schoolhouse in Clearfield township that Christ Rood is building.

Oscar Kjelson has a number of apple trees known as the wealthy variety that have borne their first crop this year while there was no great amount, the fruit is of a very fine quality. Mr. Kjelson expects to have all the apples he will need for home use after this year.

Cady Thornton who has spent several weeks in Canada, returned to Sutton Wednesday evening.

Geo. Allen, Ed Rhodes and Oscar Alm returned Wednesday from a week's hunting trip north of here about 50 miles. They were quite successful, bringing home 97 ducks.

Robert Starr came home Monday from Fargo. His daughter, Ella, who was operated on for appendicitis recently, is rapidly recovering.

C. F. Ringlee of Binford was in Sutton from Friday until Sunday.

Mrs. Warren Posey and son were at Glenfield Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mr. McDaniel, who died a few days ago.

Chas. Pratt of Courtenay has purchased a 280 acre farm near there and will make a dairy farm of it. In a few years he will be showing our wheat growers something that will make them open their eyes, or we miss our guess.—Sutton Reporter.
