

Arthur Svaren sustained the fracture of his wrist bones Tuesday. He was loading hay and was on the back end of the load when the horses suddenly started, throwing him to the ground. Dr. Truscott attended to the injury and it is mending nicely.

C. E. Peterson and daughter.