

er-- maybe it's none of our business.

J. C. Thingelstad left Monday for Battle Creek, Michigan. Mr. Thingelstad's health has been failing for some time, and he was advised to take a complete rest from his business cares. He will take treatment at the sanatorium at Battle Creek. Mrs. Thingelstad accompanied him as far as Fargo, where she will consult physicians for her health.