

John Thune met with a very serious accident this morning which will cost him the loss of his right arm below the elbow. He was grinding feed, on his farm south of town, and in some way he got his arm caught in the gearing of the mill. Dr. Truscott is attending him.

Lost Strayed ...