

handle the grain.

Chas. Troutden met with an accident Monday that will lay him up for some time. He was engaged with some others in doing some road work with a grader, in Kingsley township. The ditch along a part of the road being too steep, overturned the grader, pinning Mr. Troutden beneath it. In some way or other he managed to release himself before the others could offer any assistance. He was quite badly injured in the back and hips, but fortunately no bones were broken. The escape was a narrow one, and Mr. Troutden is thankful that it wasn't more serious.

The rains of last week were timely