

Harwell West was taken to Fargo yesterday by his mother, where physicians will be consulted for an ailment which has affected Harwell's stomach. He was siezed with cramps Tuesday and Tuesday evening to make matters worse he was hit on the stomach with a baseball. It was not known whether an operation would be necessary or not.

We have just recently completed