

The condition of W. E. West, who left here a month ago for Brainard, where he was operated on for rupture, is steadily improving and will be home in a week or so.