

will go to St. Paul today.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Buchheit was the scene of a lot of gayety last Saturday evening, when a large number of young people gathered there to surprise Swen Westerdahl, who left Monday for his home in Sweden. The evening was spent in merry chat, listening to music on the Victrola, two Swedish vocal solos by S. Westman—all of which was understood by Mr. Buchheit, of course—and various other forms of amusement. Arthur Anderson, in a few well-chosen remarks, told of the high regard in which Mr. Westerdahl is held by his many acquaintances, and in behalf of those in attendance, presented him with a handsome watch fob. Mr. and Mrs. Buchheit were the donors of a beautifully engraved gold watch. Swen's friends are sorry to see him leave, but hope to see him return next spring, which he says he will, unless something happens. A large number was at the depot to bid him good bye and wish him bon-voyage. He will sail from New York on Saturday of this week.

Commencing with next week. The
