

turned by train.

Wheat thieves are getting in their work, according to Fred Widlund. He claims some one entered his granary and made away with about 40 bushels of wheat. At the present price of wheat and the shortage of yield, Fred doesn't look at it as much of a joke, and promises that there will be something doing if he ever catches the rascal.

Editor Trubshaw County Aud-