

Mr. Wilkinson, one of the prosperous farmers near Jessie, was in Binford last Saturday. He was accompanied by his two sons, Marion and Roy. Marion had recently returned from Fargo, where he underwent operations. He was still weak from the effects of it, but is recovering rapidly.