

The funeral services of the late Walter J. Bruns were held last Sunday. A brief service was held at the F. C. Boeckman home at noon, consisting of two songs by the choir, and scripture reading and prayer by the pastor, Wm. Gjerke. The house was packed with friends and relatives who had come to pay their last respects to the dead. The funeral procession then went to the German church, south of town, where the funeral sermon was delivered. The flowers were many and beautiful. Those who came from a distance to be present at the funeral were Louis Buesing of Westgate, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bruns of Belgrade, Minnesota, Henry Richman, Tower City, H. G. Rohlwing and family of Hannaford.
