

Nic Green, for many years a resident of Griggs county but more recently at Beach, was drowned while attempting to cross the river at that place. Mr. Green was at one time assistant in the county auditor's office, and later worked as an accountant and bookkeeper for firms in Binford as well as in other neighboring towns. Deceased was well known to most of the citizens of Griggs county who will regret his sudden and untimely death.