

weds much happiness and prosperity.

Cashier C. J. Krogfoss, of Granville, visited relatives and friends here Wednesday, coming up from Cooperstown, where he had been to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Gustaf Lindgren. Carl was greatly impressed with the advancement Binford had made since his last visit here. His visit was necessarily brief owing to the pressure of business at home.

The meeting match at Coopers